Congratulations to the Class of 2020!

Leena Assaf
Ruskin High School (Junior)

Involved with student government, was a recent immigrant student liason and a peer tutor

Has a sincere interest in helping others and becoming an attorney

MariSol Johnson
Crossroads Preparatory Academy (Junior)

Enjoys Lincoln-Douglas and policy debate, Mock Trial, Academic Decathlon

“My career goal is to be an advocate for African-Americans who do not have financial access to proper and effective legal assistance.”

La’Niyah Daniels
Ruskin High School (Senior)

Wants to pursue an internship with the KCPD and become a private investigator or detective

“My college and career goals are to go to a great college and major in criminal justice.”

Zoe Lewis
Truman High School (Junior)

Involved with Youth Fellowship for Equity in Civics, Student Council, Speech and Debate, Mock Trial

“I want to attend Georgetown Law and my dream is to clerk for a Supreme Court Justice.”

Adriana Marin
Wyandotte High School (Junior)

Has participated in law enforcement classes

“I want to attend Washburn University to begin my college experience then attend law school.”

Samiyah Muhammad
Ruskin High School (Junior)

Involved with debate, band and orchestra

“I would like to go to Yale or Stanford and continue on to Harvard Law School.”

Andrea Scales
Lincoln College Preparatory Academy (Junior)

Involved in KC Girls Choir, KC Youth Court, president of Epsilon Beta

“I have a strong interest in law. The law governs everything that Americans do.”

Kori McMiller
Grandview High School (Senior)

Enjoys debate, interested in criminal defense work

Wants to attend UMKC then join a law firm

La’Niyah Daniels
Ruskin High School (Senior)

Wants to pursue an internship with the KCPD and become a private investigator or detective

“My college and career goals are to go to a great college and major in criminal justice.”

Breaunna Hayes
Washington High School (Junior)

Interested in exploring all the options in the legal field

“It is my goal to attend college and law school, to major in criminal justice and subsequently procure my J.D. with an emphasis in criminal and family law.”

Rysie Martin
William Chrisman High School (Junior)

Leader of her high school debate team

“It is my goal to attend college and law school, to major in criminal justice and subsequently procure my J.D. with an emphasis in criminal and family law.”

Saira Ruelas Violeta
Wyandotte High School (Junior)

Active in debate, forensics, and law enforcement classes

“I dream of becoming an immigration lawyer, someone who makes history and makes her way in life by helping out her community when times become hard for our immigrants.”